- ❖ Holy Gospel: Matthew 6:1-6, 16-21: In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus commends almsgiving, prayer, and fasting, but emphasizes that spiritual devotion must not be done for show.

The Season of Lent

“These forty days called Lent are like no other. It is our opportunity to return to the God who rescues us, to receive the gifts of God’s grace, to believe with the heart and confess with the mouth the wonders of God’s love in Jesus, and to resist temptation at every turn. This is no small pilgrimage on which we [embark]. It is a struggle Jesus shares. The nearness of the Lord, in bread and wine, water and word, will uphold and sustain us.” (Sundays and Season Year C 2022)

- ❖ No Communion
- ❖ Readings: Joshua 5:9-12; Psalm 32; 2 Corinthians 5:16-21

ASH WEDNESDAY

Using ashes as a sign of repentance is an ancient practice often mentioned in the Bible. Early Christians adopted the use of ashes from Jewish practices as an external mark of penitence. In the early medieval period in the West, as Lent developed and its observance became more elaborate, the ceremonial distribution of ashes to the clergy and faithful was observed on the fortieth day before Easter. Thus the fortieth day became known as Ash Wednesday, and marked the beginning of the Season of Lent.

Many Lutheran congregations have found the imposition of ashes to be a very meaningful part of the season of Lent. We use ashes to symbolize several aspects of our human existence

- Ashes remind us of God’s condemnation of sin, as God said to Adam, “Dust you are and to dust you shall return.” (Genesis 3:19)
- Ashes suggest cleansing and renewal. They were used anciently in the absence of soap. Even on Ash Wednesday, the most penitent day, we receive ashes in the form of the cross, the same symbol placed on our bodies with water in our baptism. Even in this mark of death, we anticipate the new life of Easter.
- Ashes remind us of the shortness of human life, for it is said as we are buried into the ground, or as ashes are placed in a columbarium, “We commit this body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust.”
- Ashes are a symbol of our need to repent, confess our sins, and return to God.

Please join us for our Ash Wednesday worship service at 7:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 2.

WEDNESDAY EVENING LENT OFFERING

Each year, Wilson Lutheran has dedicated our Wednesday evening Lent offering to a special purpose. This year the church council has dedicated our offering to the Spring Valley Community Cancer Fund. Under the motto of “Supporting Our Own” SVCCF is committed to providing care and resources for persons in our area during their journey with cancer. This generous organization reaches out to cancer patients and their families with gas cards, food cards, letters, prayers, and in many other ways. Indeed, several of our members have benefitted from the work of this community funded organization. Let’s lift SVCCF up with our Wednesday Lent giving.

RULES OF RURAL WISCONSIN

- Turn your cap right! Your head isn't crooked.
- Let's get this straight. It's called a "dirt road". No matter how slow you drive, you're going to get dust on your Lexus. Drive it or get out of the way.
- They are cattle. They smell funny to you, but they smell like money to us. Get over it.
- So you drive a $70,000 car. We're impressed. We have $250,000 combines that are driven only 3 weeks a year.
- So every person in rural Wisconsin waves. It's called being friendly. Try to understand the concept.
- If your cell phone rings while an 8-point buck and three doe are coming in, we WILL shoot it out of your hand. You better hope you don't have it up to your ear at the time.
- We eat taters, gravy, beans and cornbread. If you want sushi and caviar, it's available at the bait shop.
- We have golf courses, but don't hit the waters hazards – it spooks the fish.
- We open doors for women. That applies to all women, regardless of age.
- There's no "vegetarian special" in the menu. If you don't want steak, order the Chef's Salad and pick off the 2 pounds of ham and turkey.
- The "Opener" refers to the first day of fishing and deer seasons. They're considered religious holidays.
- High school and college football are as important as professional football, and more fun to watch.
- Four inches of snow isn't a blizzard – it's a flurry. Drive in it like you got some sense, and DON'T take all our bread, milk, toilet paper, and bleach from the grocery stores. This ain't Alaska. Worst case you may have to live a whole day without croissants. The pickups with snow plows will have you out the next day.
- If you want to talk to God, it's a local call.

(I'd like to attribute this to one of you, but I can't recall who sent it to me.

If you want to "fess up" I'll give you credit next month 😊)

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
Prayer Ventures
March 2022

1 Women's History Month Celebrate and give thanks for the achievements, influence, leadership, stories, gifts and faithful witness of women in our church and society throughout history. Pray for women who suffer injustice, demeaning stereotypes, violence and poverty, that they will cling to hope and be delivered from their suffering and persecution to live freely and boldly as loved and valued children of God.

2 Ash Wednesday On this day, let us approach God in prayer with humble and penitent hearts, marking ourselves with the ashes of our messy, fragile human lives yet doing so with the reassuring sign of the cross — the mark of Jesus Christ, our source of forgiveness, salvation, hope and new life.

3 Pray for our synod bishops and presiding bishop as they gather for the Conference of Bishops. Ask God to bless their time together for worship, study, building relationships and deliberating on how we can share the good news of Jesus Christ, serve our neighbor, strive for justice and peace, work alongside our global companions and grow the church.

4 Praise God, who is boundless, awesome, merciful, pure and attentive, and who loves justice and peace.

5 Remember in prayer refugees from Afghanistan, Iraq and Syria who have been stuck at the Belarus-Poland border since last November; pray for the Lutheran Church in Belarus as it assists refugees with translation services, food, clothing, hygiene items and other essentials; and give thanks for the support and assistance we are able to provide through Lutheran Disaster Response.

6 Give thanks that we know Jesus as the son of God, who did not give in to worldly temptations of power or serving his own needs but humbled himself and demonstrated God's sacrificial love for the salvation and healing of humankind.

7 Pray for the work, advocacy and networks of ELCA Disability Ministry, and that our congregations and communities might, without hesitation, preconception or limitation, connect with and embrace people living with disabilities, inviting them into full participation in the life and leadership of the church and society.

8 International Women's Day Celebrate and give thanks to God for the gifts, influence and leadership of women and girls everywhere. Pray that we will continue to strive for a world free of bias and injustice, providing women and girls with equitable access to education, health care, work and opportunities to use their gifts in the church, our communities and our world.

9 Ask the Spirit to help us see beyond our weaknesses and self-doubt and confess with confidence our faith in the saving, life-giving love of Jesus Christ and the encouragement we receive from our siblings in Christ.

10 Give thanks that our church accompanies our global companions, working together to share God's love, respond to neighbors in need and participate in God's mission.

11 Lift up prayers of gratitude that God is our refuge and fortress, the one in whom we can trust in every circumstance, no matter how complicated or threatening.

12 During Lent, as we spend time reflecting on our human weakness and limitations, pray that we do not slip into discouragement or hopelessness but allow the Spirit to lead us toward the hope, forgiveness and newness we receive as a gift through Jesus Christ, the manifestation of God's enduring and redeeming love for us.

13 Give thanks for the humbling, awe-inspiring example of Jesus Christ, who persisted in his ministry and work of healing the world undeterred by criticism and death threats. Pray that the Spirit will inspire and embolden us to be committed and unwavering as we care for our neighbors in need, sharing our faith and spreading the life-changing good news of Jesus Christ.

14 Pray for the community ministries of congregations across the country that serve neighbors in need through community gardens, meals, food pantries, homeless shelters, counseling, disaster response, neighborhood renewal, day care for children and adults, educational opportunities and connecting volunteers with ecumenical partners and community organizations.

15 Pray that being siblings in Christ will inspire us to encourage and care for one another; equip each other to live our faith and serve our neighbor; strive for justice and peace in the world; trust each other with our joys, sorrows and questions; and gather together to praise God for claiming and restoring us as loved children with an eternal inheritance.

16 Our church has deep, long-standing relationships with Lutheran churches and partners around the world. Pray that we will grow stronger as a global church, receive one another's gifts and expertise, and support the growth and work of our companions, which includes urban and youth outreach, establishing new congregations, providing theological education, pursuing justice and peace, and training new leaders.

17 Thank God for our special relationship with the United Church of Christ, a full communion partner with the ELCA since 1997. Pray for the church, its members and its leaders, that together we will find strength and resources for the work of sharing the gospel and serving our neighbor, especially in these challenging times.

18 Ask God to remind us that we accomplish far more of God's work in the world by embracing relationships and partnerships with our siblings in Christ and others.

19 Pray for ELCA Global Mission personnel, Young Adults in Global Mission and seminary interns who accompany and support the work of our companion churches around the world, especially as they adapt to the changing needs, circumstances and opportunities in their respective countries during the lingering pandemic.

20 First day of spring Praise God for the wonders of creation and the signs of hope, life and renewal that emerge with spring.

21 Pray that our lives, relationships and behaviors might reflect God's patience and undeserved confidence in our capacity to change, grow and love as the Spirit works within us.

22 World Water Day God's gift of water — in all its forms — nourishes and sustains life and stirs awe and wonder. Pray that we will faithfully steward the water resources entrusted to our care and enjoyment. Pray that we will work together to conserve water, help those who lack access to clean water, take thoughtful action during droughts and do the work of cleaning up and protecting water that we have polluted or misused.

23 Give thanks for God's faithfulness, actions, teaching and example throughout the ages, which guide us to follow the word and desires of God, enrich our faith, and bear hope and the good news of Jesus Christ to all people.

24 Pray for ELCA missionaries serving alongside church bodies and companion organizations in Central America to train leaders; share the gospel; respond to poverty, hunger and violence; advocate for laws that respect the human rights and dignity of migrants, refugees and asylum-seekers; and teach church leaders to care for victims of trauma.

25 "My mouth praises you with joyful lips when I think of you on my bed, and meditate on you in the watches of the night; for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I sing for joy. My soul clings to you" (Psalm 63:5-8). Thank God for being our ready help and refuge in every moment of our life.

26 Across the country, congregations and synods working with resettlement agencies are sponsoring individuals and families who have been evacuated from Afghanistan. Pray that the Spirit will guide our efforts to welcome, support and care for people who are resettling and adjusting to unfamiliar communities, neighbors and cultures. Give thanks for the challenging and essential work of Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service, Lutheran Services in America and the ELCA's AMMPARO strategy (Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation and Opportunities).

27 Recall recent experiences — personal or witnessed — when God's grace far exceeded your expectations and comprehension. Lift up prayers of acknowledgment and gratitude to God.

28 Ask God to build up our resiliency, optimism, hope and confidence in God's presence when we feel anxious, overwhelmed or powerless in today's world.

29 Rejoice and give thanks to God for surrounding us with steadfast love and forgiveness that cannot be taken away or diminished by anyone or anything.

30 Remember in prayer poets who free us to see and contemplate in new ways the beauty and complexity of creation, diverse human experiences, challenging social conditions and our faith.

31 Pray for the leaders from across our church who serve on the ELCA Church Council. Ask the Spirit to guide them as they support, review, advise and enable God's work in the world with thoughtfulness, integrity, respect and partnerships sharing a common vision.
