What a Gift!

“When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ²And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.”
(Acts 2:1-4)

The Easter season concludes with the Day of Pentecost, originally observed by Jews to celebrate the wheat harvest. Over time its purpose changed to become the commemoration of the giving of the law to Moses on Mount Sinai. As the fiftieth day of Easter, Christians maintained the festival, but changed its focus to become a celebration of the Spirit of the risen Christ in the church.

Pentecost is thought of both as the birthday of the Christian church (although the followers of Jesus Christ would not be known as “Christians” until later), and as the day on which the Apostles received the gift of the Holy Spirit while they were still gathered in Jerusalem after the Resurrection. Others have suggested it might be more appropriate to celebrate it as the church’s baptismal day, a suggestion I rather like. Whether we celebrate Pentecost as one or the other or all three, the reason for doing so is the same. We celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit, God’s response to Jesus’ promise.

Here's the thing about all that. The same gift the Apostles received on the Day of Pentecost, we receive in the sacrament of Holy Baptism. In fact, we might say the gift of the Holy Spirit is the fullness of baptism. As our baptismal liturgy proclaims, we are “sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the cross of Christ forever.” That which was given to Peter and the other Apostles changed their lives forever, and so changes our lives.

As Christians, we share this common birth and receive in common the gift of the Holy Spirit; that gift which proclaims we are all children of God – forever, forming the basis of our life-giving relationship with God and the community of faith, the church universal. In the power of that gift, we are empowered, just as the Spirit empowered the Apostle’s on that first Pentecost, to proclaim the Good News and continue Christ’s mission in the world.

The gift of the Spirit is one of those gifts that just keeps on giving. The same Spirit we received in our baptism continues to give new life, working to create and sustain faith in Jesus Christ wherever the Gospel is proclaimed and the Sacraments celebrated; uniting all who believe into one body, the church, a community of faith in communion with God the Father and God the Son.

We receive a lot of gifts during our lifetime, some of which receive a lot of thought before they’re given; gifts that tell us we are special and that we are loved. Others are given with little prior thought, other than what it took to find an item on sale that would be “good enough”. But the gift of the Spirit was more than a mere thought, and it certainly was not on the sale rack.

It comes to us with the gentle sprinkling of water on our heads instead of on tongues of fire riding on the rush of a violent wind, but there’s no question, however it comes, what a gift it is; the gift of a lifetime.

PREPARING FOR WORSHIP

June 2022 – Season After Pentecost

“On Pentecost, we celebrate that we have been given an Advocate to accompany us. Poured out in wind and fire, water, wine and bread, the Holy Spirit abides in and among us. We give thanks that God speaks to each of us, no matter our origins, language, or life path. Filled with the Spirit of truth, we go out from worship to proclaim the saving power of Christ’s love and the freedom of God’s grace with all the world.” Sundays and Season Year C 2022, Augsburg Fortress.

Though he must leave them now, Jesus promises the coming of the Advocate whom God will send to comfort and enlighten them.

One Holy Trinity Sunday the church celebrates the Holy Trinity. “Paul writes that through Jesus we have peace with God, whose love pours into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, giving us lasting hope. We celebrate the gracious One-in-Three, eternal Three-in-One, as we worship in community; as we share water and word, bread and wine; and as we bring God’s love and hope to our neighbors.” Sundays and Season Year C 2022, Augsburg Fortress.

GETTING OLDER

- I don't mean to interrupt people. I just randomly remember things and get really excited!
- Age 60 may be the new 40, but 9:00 p.m. is the new midnight.
- When I say, "The other day", I could be referring to any time between yesterday and 15 years ago.
- Old age is when you still have something on the ball but you're just too tired to bounce it.
- I've been thinking about making a fitness video for people my age. I'd call it "Pumping Rust".
