- ❖ Color: White
- ❖ Holy Communion – Chancel Rail
- ❖ Readings: Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18; Psalm 149; Ephesians 1:11-23
- ❖ Holy Gospel: Luke 6:20-31: In echoes of the prophet Isaiah and Mary's song of praise, Jesus reveals surprising things about who enjoys blessing and who endures woe. He invites his disciples to shower radical love, blessing, forgiveness, generosity, and trust even on enemies and outsiders.

Sunday, November 13 – Pentecost 25

- ❖ Liturgy: Evangelical Lutheran Worship
- ❖ Color: Green
- ❖ No Communion
- ❖ Readings: Malachi 4:1-2a; Psalm 98; 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13
- ❖ Holy Gospel: Luke 21:5-19: As history moves toward God's fulfillment there will be frightening signs and events. Before the end, believers will draw strength from their relationship to God and will be given the words they need to testify and to endure without fear.

Sunday, November 20 – Christ the King

- ❖ Liturgy: Evangelical Lutheran Worship
- ❖ Color: White
- ❖ Holy Communion – Continuous Serving
- ❖ Readings: Jeremiah 23:1-6; Psalm 46; Colossians 1:11-20
- ❖ Holy Gospel: Luke 23:33-43: Amid scoffing and slander from those who sarcastically call him Messiah and King, Jesus reveals that to be Messiah and King is to give one's life for others. Here he uses his power to welcome a despised criminal to paradise but puts his own death into God's hands.

Wednesday, November 23 – Thanksgiving Eve

- ❖ Liturgy: Evangelical Lutheran Worship
- ❖ Color: Green
- ❖ No Communion
- ❖ Readings: Deuteronomy 26:1-11; Psalm 100; Philippians 4:4-9
- ❖ Holy Gospel: John 6:25-35: The day after he multiplies bread to feed five thousand people, Jesus is pursued by the crowds clamoring for more bread. Recalling the image of manna in the wilderness, Jesus promises to provide the true bread from heaven that will never fail. Jesus himself is that bread of life.

Sunday, November 27 – Advent 1

- ❖ Liturgy: Evangelical Lutheran Worship
- ❖ Color: Blue
- ❖ Holy Communion – Continuous Serving
- ❖ Readings: Isaiah 2:1-5; Psalm 122; Romans 13:11-14
- ❖ Holy Gospel: Matthew 24: 36-44: Jesus describes his second coming as a sudden, turbulent event that will bring about deep change to our normal, day-to-day lives. Therefore, he urges people to stay awake, be aware, and wait expectantly, because the Son of Man will come unannounced.

2022 CONFIRMATION CLASS FAITH STATEMENTS

Congratulations to Billy Gray and Cade Lamb who celebrated their Confirmation on Sunday, October 23, affirming the promises made for them on the day of their baptism. Their final assignment was to prepare the personal Faith Statements printed below.

CADE LAMB

Good Morning! Those of you who do not know me, my name is Cade Lamb. I am the son of Andy and Jes Lamb as well as a younger brother to Ally Lamb. As I have gotten older, I have understood the importance of having a close relationship with the Lord. A large part of that understanding was my Grandpa Lamb who we lost in the summer of 2021. So when he was no longer here it was hard for me to keep a close relationship with God. I often found myself feeling sad, angry at God for taking my grandpa, and feeling like no matter how hard I tried nothing went my way.

I soon realized that I lost my relationship with God, so I started praying every night before bed. After a while it started to feel natural and easy like I was talking to a friend. I can now proudly say that I have a close relationship with God and talk to Him daily.

That experience that I just shared with you is the reason I chose the bible verse Matthew 19:26 ^{"26}But Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible." God has granted me many things in life that I will forever be grateful for. He gave me a loving family, supportive friends, and most importantly my good looks;) All jokes aside, everything good I have in my life I know is because of Him. Just when I think, "That's not possible", God shows me a way that it is. I'll admit that I sometimes get caught up in this world and lose sight of the Heavenly Father and his kingdom to come; but I know if I lift my thoughts up to God, I can accomplish anything!

I want to thank the congregation and faith community we have here at Wilson Lutheran. You all have shown me what it means to worship God. I want to thank Pastor Bob for all he has done to grow my faith. My parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles who support me in everything I do. And mostly importantly, I want to thank God for giving me a reason to smile every day and realize that all things are possible with him in my life.

BILLY GRAY

When I first tried to write this, I didn't have the slightest idea what to make it about. But I guess what it boils down to is that God loves everyone and everything. He loves us when we screw up and make mistakes. He loves us when we do good. His love cannot be taken away from us. Love isn't necessarily hugs and kisses all the time though. Sometimes love is having a hard conversation with a friend or sometimes it's taking a stand on something. Often, it's a sacrifice. Love is caring for others and is selflessness not needing anything in return. We are God's hands on this earth and as such we must extend that love to everyone the way God intended.

This to me means that you need to be nice to everyone at all times and treat them with kindness as we are all children of God.

For me my journey with God started when I was baptized. It was my Mom and Dad who then brought me to church and Sunday school as I got older until they were bringing me to my confirmation classes and church to acolyte.

I would like to thank my parents as they have taught me about faith and have helped me get to where I am today. With faith in God I believe that anything is possible. A person needs to remember that God is always present in everything we do.

I believe that the Holy Spirit is what connects everything in this world to each other. It is what binds and creates strong and lasting connections between humans, animals, objects, and more. The Holy Spirit is God's presence, wrapping and connecting the entire world in an energy that one can feel wherever one goes. The Holy Spirit is God, God's energy, love, and strength

Now, I feel closer to God, and I feel like God is a major part of my life. I find myself praying to God for people across the world that are not as fortunate as me. I find myself praying at night to help end world hunger and to have peace for everyone.

This connection reminds me that choices I make affect a larger community than just myself, and that I must work to try to make sure that all I do is reflects God's word, inspired by the way Jesus lived, guided by the Holy Spirit, and representative of the church.

My favorite Bible verse is Mark 12:30. "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength."

I like this verse because I truly feel that we should all love everyone and by doing that it would make the world a much better place.

In closing I would like to thank Pastor Bob for all his time and for everything he taught me in confirmation.

CONGRATULATIONS JORDAN!

Jordan Lamb showed her heifer at the Minnesota Beef Expo held at the MN State Fair Grounds on Friday, October 21. Competing against 100 other exhibitors, Jordan placed 2nd for Showmanship in the 15-16 age group, and 3rd out of 8 with her April heifer. Well Done, Jordan!

THINGS I LEARNED FROM MY MOTHER

1. My mother taught me to appreciate a job well done. "If you're going to kill each other, do it outside, I just finished cleaning in here."
2. My mother taught me religion. "You better pray that will come out of the carpet."
3. My mother taught me logic. "Because I said so, that's why."
4. My mother taught me more logic. "If you fall out of that swing and break your neck, you're not going to the store with me."
5. My mother taught me foresight. "Make sure you wear clean underwear in case you're in an accident."
6. My mother taught me irony. "Keep crying and I'll give you something to cry about."
7. My mother taught me osmosis. "Shut your mouth and eat your supper."
8. My mother taught me contortionism. "Will you just look at that dirt on the back of your neck."

THOUGHTS TO PONDER

- The easiest way to find something you lost around the house is to buy a replacement.
- The sole purpose of a child's middle name is so he can tell when he's really in trouble.
 - I remember being able to get up out of a chair without making sound effects?
 - The older I get the earlier it gets late.

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Prayer Ventures

November 2022

1 All Saints Day Give thanks and praise to God for saints who have helped enrich our faith in Christ, inspired us to lives of service, cared for us, demonstrated grace when we needed it most, taught us life skills, influenced our values and stirred our hope and joy.

2 Native American Heritage Month Praise God for Native American and Alaska Native neighbors and siblings in Christ, who represent a rich diversity of gifts, backgrounds, tribes, regions, communities and congregations, and whose history long predates the colonization of North America. Pray for the work of ELCA Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations in seeking justice and reconciliation for all people, celebrating diversity within Christ's unifying love and supporting Native congregations and ministries.

3 "Learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow. Come now, let us argue it out, says the Lord: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow" (Isaiah 1:17-18). Pray that we will respect the word and desires of God, seek the Spirit's guidance in responding to our neighbors in need, and trust God to create and renew a spirit of compassion and generosity within us.

4 Pray for those affected by wildfires, flooding, droughts and hurricanes, especially people struggling through immediate and long-term recovery. Ask the Spirit to inspire our generosity toward and involvement in the work of Lutheran Disaster Response and its partners to bring relief, support, hope and resources to our neighbors in need.

5 "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" (Psalm 46:1). Pray that, in every challenge we face, the Spirit will increase our trust and confidence in God's presence, care and help in our lives.

6 Praise the teachings and example of Jesus, who calls for us to be caring disciples, unafraid of being involved in the lives of those suffering injustice, persecution, isolation, grief, poverty or illness.

7 Pray for our outdoor ministry leaders as they gather for the Lutheran Outdoor Ministry conference in Boise, Idaho. Pray that their time together in the presence of the Spirit will be rich in mutual care and encouragement, ideas and resources, and opportunities to nurture their skills for serving in camp and retreat ministries.

8 Election Day Pray that our elected leaders will respect and serve all people, and that the Spirit will inspire and guide them in mending divisions, creating unity and encouraging constituents to work together for the well-being of all.

9 Ask the Spirit to deepen our understanding of Jesus and how the gift of God's son has the power to transform our lives and identities in amazing and unimagined ways.

10 Give thanks and pray for leaders of our church as they gather for the ELCA Church Council, that the Spirit will inspire faithfulness, wisdom, vision and creativity in their deliberations, decisions and guidance.

11 Veterans Day Honor and give thanks for those who have served in the military to secure freedom, justice, peace and security for our country and other nations. Remembering the sacrifices they have made on our behalf, pray for their families, their congregations, federal chaplains, and organizations that support and care for returning veterans.

12 Give thanks for the ELCA Lay Schools for Ministry Network and for the Select Learning program, through which our church and its partners provide laity with opportunities to deepen their faith, study Scripture and apply their skills and life experiences to following Christ and serving the church, their communities and the world.

13 Pray that the Spirit will help us live our baptismal journeys in anticipation of the return of Christ, with confidence in God's grace and without fear, worry or obsession over when or how that day will come.

14 Reaffirm to God our commitment to equal employment opportunity for all citizens, especially our neighbors and siblings in Christ who live with disabilities but whose gifts enrich our communities and nation.

15 Pray for a peaceful end to the war in Ukraine, and that the millions of people displaced from their homes and communities might find comfort, healing, hope and stability, returning to the daily lives and routines they once knew.

16 Pray for the ELCA's Homeless and Justice Network, a coalition of ministries called to serve those on the margins who experience homelessness, poverty and injustice.

17 "Do not be weary in doing what is right" (2 Thessalonians 3:13). Pray that our assurance of eternal life in the kingdom of God will free us to live in the here and now, fully engaged with our lives and vocations, sharing the gospel, serving our neighbor and working for justice.

18 Pray that we might confess our role in the climate change wreaking havoc throughout the world and might grasp the urgency of managing and caring for the earth, its resources and all living things — fragile gifts that God has entrusted to our use, care and restoration.

19 Pray for the ELCA's advocacy network and the work it empowers us to do for justice, equity and the well-being of society.

20 The love and mercy of God, which we experience in the life, suffering and sacrifice of Jesus, are for our sake and salvation. Pray that the Spirit will deepen our faith in Christ and help us reflect God's unconditional, sacrificial love for humanity.

21 Give thanks for Lutheran Men in Mission, Women of the ELCA and congregational ministries that attend to the spiritual, physical, emotional and relational needs of all ages, and that nurture leaders for the church, our communities and society.

22 Remember the people of Puerto Rico, who have suffered multiple natural disasters and endure ongoing, extensive recovery work. Ask the Spirit to renew their faith, hope, stamina and resilience; pray that they will make progress in restoring their infrastructure and regaining access to food, water, shelter, sanitation and medical services.

23 Give thanks to God for rescuing us from the power of darkness through the gift of Jesus Christ—our teacher, our truth and the light illuminating our complicated lives.

24 Thanksgiving Day Remember that everything we have to sustain and renew us, physically and spiritually, comes from God. Let us promise to be generous with all we have and to tirelessly bear the good news that Jesus Christ, the bread of life for the world that is never depleted, is our hope and salvation.

25 Native American Heritage Day Give thanks for the cultures, values, accomplishments and spirituality of Native Americans that have shaped our nation and church. We commit to learning more about Indigenous people and tribal nations and to working together to correct inaccuracies of history.

26 Pray that we will be responsible in what we consume and how we spend our money, knowing that our neighbors suffer hunger and poverty amid abundance.

27 First Sunday of Advent We will not be disappointed in our confidence in God's love and forgiveness, our anticipation of Christ's return or our welcome in the kingdom of God. Praise God!

28 Give thanks for the diverse work of the 28 ELCA missionaries accompanying 18 church bodies and 18 companion organizations in Latin America and the Caribbean. Ask God to bless and guide our ministry together so that we might respond to the needs of our neighbors in need who are most vulnerable and might spread the good news of Jesus Christ, far and wide.

29 Pray that the Spirit will deepen our generosity in sharing our resources and financial assets for the sake of our neighbors and the well-being of the world.

30 Pray that we will be generous and respectful in responding to and caring for those who cannot find secure shelter, pay for food or medical care, or support the children or older adults dependent on them.
